

SGA Student Senate Recap
March 2, 2020

The meeting was called to order at 7:31pm

Open Forum was utilized by Heather Mann from Spectrum. She spoke about Politics of Pride meeting and they plan to discuss politics regarding the LGBTQ community around the US as well as in Auburn. This meeting is open to all political leanings.

Graduate Students Alexis Davis and Madison Hopkins presented a presentation about what they wish they knew during their undergraduate years.

Mike Kensler from the Office of Sustainability asked senators to support the “WE ARE STILL IN” initiative. It mainly regards climate change and how various groups, schools, and leaders across the United States are taking steps to avoid carbon emissions.

Arianna Haynes, Executive Director of Schools Council spoke on her new position and general goals for the year.

An executive report was given by Sarah Jane Levine, EVP of Initiatives reminded senators about a 6 dollar dinner in all dining halls on Fridays.

Landon McNellage, EVP of Communications and Marketing spoke regarding applications for director and assistant director positions within SGA Cabinet.

Ada Ruth Huntley, SGA President, gave a report on the Coronavirus and how Auburn is planning to combat the virus.

Reports were given by all colleges and committees regarding feedback gathered during office hours and goals during the semester.

There was no current or future legislation on the docket, and the meeting was adjourned.