War Eagle! My name is Caroline Fahy, and I have the privilege of campaigning to be on your 2024-2025 Liberal Arts Senate. Auburn University's Student Government Association is an effective organization that listens to Auburn's student body to ensure that every aspect of the university is admirable. If elected, my platform "How 'Bout Thach" would provide a voice to Auburn's CLA to enhance relationships and communication between all students and faculty. Auburn University is an institution that is primarily known for its supportive campus environment, and I would strive to continue that legacy by supporting changes that are proposed by the student body. The CLA contains a variety of different majors, so my platform would guarantee every student has the tools and connections they need to succeed. I look forward to hearing more about your requests and desires and would love your support on February 2nd.
