7:35 Senator Zellner announced sign-in sheet

7:50 Senate Orientation Test

- I. Approval of Minutes
 - A. N/A
- II. Reports of Officers and Standing Committees
- III. Reports of Special Committees and Liaisons
- IV. Current Orders of Business
 - A. PSSB:24-0219-01: Executive Vice President Confirmation
 - B. Senator Yohn: expressed concern with a line at the bottom of the goal sheet. When a resolution is passed with the support of the cabinet, the executive branch's job is to execute it. What cons are to be discussed?
 - C. Goal sheet is not set in stone. Still need to establish executive goals as a team.
 - D. Senator Yohn: Is there a goal sheet for George Turner's outreach goals?
 - E. Vice President Herring: His goals were delivered during his interview.
 - F. Senator Yohn: Do you see why I am concerned with why we would be appointing someone with no evident goals?
 - G. Vice President Herring: I understand.
 - H. Senator Yohn: Can we point to any outreach experience?
 - I. Vice President Herring: He has Cabinet experience.
 - J. Treasurer Goodner: I believe that we had a solid interview process, and we found who we thought would fit best. He turned an initiatives question into an outreach question. Although he does not have previous outreach experience, we believe he is the best choice.
 - K. Vice President Herring: We felt it was important to consider qualities before previously held positions.
 - L. Senator Inman: Motion to end debate
 - M. Motion in Favor
 - N. Debate Concluded
 - O. Bill adopted.
- V. Future Orders of Business
 - A. PSSB: 24-0219-01: Executive Vice President Confirmation
 - B. Senator Zellner motioned to move Future Order to a Current Order
 - C. Moved and Seconded
