My name is Stella Jane Eskew, and I will be running for senator of the Harbert College of Business as part of the Strictly Business ticket. Auburn has given me so much in the past 1.5 years, and I couldn't be more thankful to be a student at this school. I've been encouraged to be the best version of myself and one of the ways I've done that is by stepping into leadership roles. This senate role is one I will be very passionate about, and I intend to do my very best to serve my fellow Harbert students. I am passionate about serving others in many capacities, whether it be children in after school care, or my peers that I work with in class each day. In this role, I intend to make sure the ideas and desires of the students are voiced and weigh heavily in our senate meetings. I want to make it easier for students to submit ideas to senators, so that we can make sure they are satisfied. One specific improvement that I believe can be made is an update to Tiger Scheduler, or an entirely new way of registering for classes. Another idea I have is that the printer system in Horton Hargrave Hall should be updated or made more familiar to students. With the growing student population of the university, and consequently a larger school of business, technology updates are important to put in place. I plan to set many goals as senator and intend to accomplish them in the year I get this position. If elected, I promise to have the best interest of all students in mind, and I hope to promote, unify, and serve in this position. Thank you!
